At our spa, we rely on the pure power of nature – with two exclusive care lines that providing deep well-being.

LaRicina derives its effect from the valuable larch resin of the high-plateau Salten. Regionally and sustainably sourced, these products unfold their relaxing, circulation-boosting, and regenerative power – a gift from nature.

Pharmos Natur replaces water, alcohol, and preservatives with pure, organic-certified Aloe Vera. The result: instantly noticeable freshness, intense hydration, and pure regeneration.

Experience natural care at the highest level –

for your well-being and relaxation.
